

Nonprofit Program Intern

Summary:

The Brooklyn Community Pride Center is seeking a part-time, temporary intern for an eight-week placement at Fostering Change for Children.

Fostering Change for Children (FCFC) is a Brooklyn nonprofit that helps children and families by creating positive solutions to challenges within the child welfare system. FCFC began in 2005 and is located in Restoration Plaza in the Bedford-Stuyvesant neighborhood.

Intern candidates should not contact Fostering Change for Children's office directly. Application contact information is below.

Scope of Duties

- Help program team organize and facilitate weekly-group session.
- Recruit new members for UpFront program.
- Help marketing team find and create social media posts related to FCFC's mission and work.
- Help development team with fundraising activities.
- Assist with UpFront's 2018 Pride Awareness Event (tentative)

Qualifications

High school diploma/GED required; associate's/bachelor's degrees desired.

Characteristics

- Passion for child welfare and/or human services
- Computer and technology skills
- Strong writing skills
- Able to work independently

Compensation: This is a part-time internship for up to sixteen hours/week. $13/hour paid through the Brooklyn Community Pride Center. MetroCards provided. No benefits are provided.

Applications: E-mail cover letter and résumé, SahLeem Butler, Youth Pride Program manager, at sbutler@lgbtbrooklyn.org. Subject: [Your name]: [Fostering Change for Children] 2018 Internship Position. Please specify in your cover letter how you fit with the above qualifications and characteristics.

Location: Restoration Plaza in the Bedford-Stuyvesant .

Women, people of color and transgender people are encouraged to apply. The Brooklyn Community Pride Center is an affirmative action employer.