Design or Social Media Intern

Summary:

The Brooklyn Community Pride Center is seeking a part-time, temporary intern for a six-week placement at DRTY SMMR. The intern will report to Alfredo Leija.

For seven years, DRTY SMMR has been a hub of local fashion, music and art. It’s a store that features clothing, accessories, and art made by the community of people that run the shop. The store’s in-house brand DRTY SMMR is made in the store itself, with the sewing machine as the centerpiece of the storefront. The space contains multitudes, and adapts to become a space for concerts, dance parties, BBQs, movie nights, and art happenings.

Scope of Duties

Depending on their interests, interns can work within two focus areas – Design or Social Media – or they can pursue a combination of the two. Duties for each focus area may include the following:

- Design
  - Support one or more designers in creating clothing for customers, including cutting, sewing, and pressing garments.
  - Support the re-organization of the studio to accommodate multiple sewing stations.
  - Support retail operations, inventory management, and sourcing of materials and vintage items.

- Social Media
  - Create social media content, developing ideas for stories to tell about the store, our designers, and upcoming events.
  - Update website.
  - Support the planning and facilitation of in-store events, which may include designers’ pop-up shops, a speaker and/or potluck series, and holiday parties.
  - Assist with photo and video shoots.

Qualifications

- Fluency with social media platforms. Photoshop a plus!
- Witty writing skills
- Cut and sew skills (for design interns)
- Eye for style
- Graphic and/or web design skills a plus

Characteristics
